

Account Reconciliation

Organization Name: MARICO

Business Challenge: There is a need for a tool which can provide accountants with an intuitive interface for performing account reconciliations that includes standardized templates, workflows for preparation, approval and review, linkage to policies and procedures and integrated storage of supporting documentation. It will enforce standardization and optimization across the reconciliation process to improve quality and accuracy of financial data.